PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

NINTENDO OF AMERICA

Redmond, WA

QA Tester

December 2018 - Current

I am currently working as a Nintendo of America gam tester, performing system debug on upcoming Nintendo software. This includes and is not limited to, free debug and structured testing on upcoming and existing features for Nintendo.

FILAMENT GAMES

Remote

QA Analyst

July 2018 - September 2018

I worked as a QA Analyst on many of Filament's upcoming projects. Filament primarily deals with education games for all age ranges. At Filament, I perform QA duties as well as providing design feedback on every project that goes out.

ELDER SCROLLS: LEGENDS/ETERNAL

Denver, CO

Senior QA Tester

November 2016 - December 2017

I was a Senior QA Tester at Direwolf Digital, primarily on The Elder Scrolls: Legends and Eternal. I performed exhaustive system testing before content updates. I also engaged with upcoming features to provide comprehensive bug testing as well as worked with other teams to cement and clarify systems before launch. In addition to testing new features, I helped maintain existing systems and preserve a high level of quality. I headed QA testing on the Event system as well as the player progression feature.

GRANITE TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Quincy, MA

RFP Technical Coordinator

October 2015 - July 2016

At Granite, I was promoted to the role of RFP Technical Coordinator for the Solutions Engineering team from my former role as a Customer Service Representative. This role consists of organizing Requests for Proposals which consisted of telecommunication packages that Granite would bid on. My role is to organize our legal, pricing, engineering, and sales departments to produce technical and legal documents for clients.
